

Notes from the Grad Recruitment meeting, Feb 26, 2008

Adam Bradley

February 26, 2008

- scheduling issues
 - 2 short talks blocks, Thurs morning and afternoon
 - leave the option open for for a lecture visit
 - meet with fewer profs than last two years
 - * ~ 30 min, but no longer than 45 min
 - * individual visits, but no more than 2 students to a prof at a time
- ideas for Friday afternoon, before dinner
 - give them options
 - Museums
 - Ohio City: West Side Market and/or Great Lakes tour
 - go back to the hotel and rest
- ideas for Friday night
 - dinner: Zak is looking into this
 - Mad Greek, McNulty's, Night Towne (possibly overbudget), Winking Lizard as last resort
 - post dinner entertainment
 - * Remy found nothing at the Q or Severance that night
 - * arrange for transportation immediately after dinner and later that night (from Coventry)
- divvied the domestic students among committee
 - Xingxian is emailing the many Chinese students
 - Adisak is email the two Thai students
 - I (or Meredith, whoever) will email the one Korean student and one Indian student

- email to write to domestic students; points to hit:
 - send it ASAP
 - ask them to confirm or deny visiting ASAP
 - * ask them to email Betty and buy flight ASAP if yes
 - ask them to reply to you
 - * open yourself up to easy communication, possibly give them your number or ask for theirs if they would like to talk on the phone.
 - stress that the Mar 27 - 29 weekend is ideal but that we will accommodate them if another date is better
 - repeat that there will be plans for Friday night, their hotel will be covered that night, and they should fly out / leave Saturday
 - get some idea or suggest some ideas for profs for them to visit
 - mention why you enjoy Cleveland / CWRU / Case Physics
 - give them the URL for the site Meredith threw together:
http://www.phys.cwru.edu/~pgsa/prospective_visits/welcome08.html